Note; FROM BETWEEN THE NANTICOKE AND THE CHOPTANK

Old Methodist Episcopal Parsonage, East New Market, 1841; Private.

This was the first Methodist parsonage built in town and stands on land given to the church trustees by William Harrison in 1841. It stayed in church hands until 1961; it is now a private residence. The parsonage, built in two stages, is a large T-shaped building with a one-story screened porch wrapping itself around the front of the house. There is a large exposed chimney on the south of the building that tapers from a wide base.
